

- Mission Statement

Prophet's Rest exists to provide care and support to leaders and workers in Christ-centered ministries and non-profit organizations by providing them with opportunities to rest, reflect, and restore. Healthy leaders and workers create healthy ministries and organizations.

- History of Prophet's Rest

In 2003, God placed a desire in the hearts of Greg and Tanja Brewer to find ways to encourage and bless individuals who are actively serving in Christ-centered ministries and compassion-based organizations. This desire was formed while reading a story found in the biblical book of 2 Kings 4:7-17.

The story found in 2 Kings 4 tells how a wealthy woman would often cook for a prophet who passed by her home. This prophet was very active in her community and passed by her home on a regular basis. The Bible says the woman and her husband perceived that the prophet was a righteous man of God. They decided to add an extra room onto their home, so that the prophet would have a place to rest whenever he was in their city.

The key to this story is that the couple saw a faithful man, doing the work of God in their local community, and they decided to help by supporting him with practical resources. Genesis 12:3 reminds us that God blesses those who find ways to bless His people. Prophet's Rest exists to fulfill this biblical principle of blessing those who do the work of God in our communities.

- Purpose & Resources

The primary purpose of Prophet's Rest is to address issues related to emotional and physical stress, professional burn-out, relational conflicts, and the loss of spiritual passion that challenge those serving in vocational ministries and nonprofit organizations. Support is provided in the form of personal outings, gifts, sabbatical/vacation lodging, retreats, personal growth resources, and on-going peer support. All resources and activities are provided to selected recipients at no charge.
